Central Intelligence Agency

Mr. Steven Garfinkel
Director, Information Security
Oversight Office
Washington, D.C. 20405

Dear Mr. Garfinkel:

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) is in receipt of your letter dated September 29, 1988 implementing Standard Form (SF) 312, "Classified Information Nondisclosure Agreement," and clarifying previously executed copies of SF 189. We sincerely appreciate all of your efforts to keep us informed with regard to the ongoing developments in this matter.

As you are aware, the CIA does not use the standardized forms promulgated by the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) since the Agency requires execution of far more stringent secrecy agreements as a condition of CIA employment and of access to CIA information. The Agency's basic secrecy agreement was recently revised and repromulgated as Form 368 in connection with the ongoing secrecy agreement litigations in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Further, the Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) Nondisclosure Agreement, Form 4193, has similarly been revised and reissued by the Agency for Government-wide use as Form 4355. The Agency's authority to create and utilize its own secrecy agreements has been recognized by the National Security Council, and subparagraph (k) of ISOO's amendment to 32 CFR 2003.20, dated September 29, 1988, expressly recognizes that agencies exempt from using SF 189 need not take any action with respect to SF 312.

In light of the foregoing, the Agency will continue to use its own secrecy agreements in lieu of the SF 312. Needless to say, we remain committed to the protection of classified information from unauthorized disclosure and will continue to support strongly your Office's endeavors in that area. Please let me know if we may be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

R. M. Huffstutler
